Sweet, sweet Marie, where did you go now girl?
Sweet, sweet Marie, where did you go now girl?
You know you can't hide baby, I'll find you anyway in the world

I saw you jumping out of bed now, I heard you slamming in the door
I heard you ripping out the cord now, it's like you hear the engine roar
I'm gonna find you baby, like I did some so many times before

Sweet, sweet Marie, you'll never get away
Sweet, sweet Marie, you'll never get away
No matter where you're going 'cause I'll find you any day

(Solo)

I saw you cuddling with my friend now, I heard you wispering in his ear I'm gonna tell my friend to quit now, I'm gonna bring him back in here Bacause you are my little baby, you gonna stick with me, do you hear?

Sweet, sweet Marie, where did you go now girl?
Sweet, sweet Marie, where did you go now girl?
You know you can't hide baby, I'll find you anywhere in the world

(Solo)

Sweet, sweet Marie, never get away
Sweet, sweet Marie, you'll never get away
No matter where you're going baby 'cause I'll find you sweet Marie
