I can hear you softly breathing as I'm turning in my bed
I low(?) sleep while accusing myself for the things that I said

Really didn't mean to hurt you but I did it anyway
As I think of what did go wrong I still wonder what makes you stay

You're slowly slipping away from me
And no one knows how it's gonna be
Will you love me or leave me?
Will you keep on decieve me?
You're slowly slipping away from me

Used to be the perfect lovers, seems so many years ago
Don't you ask me what did go wrong 'cause I really don't know
While I try so hard to reach you, you just hide inside yourself
Has the love gone you used to feel, will you put me on the shelf?

You're slowly slipping away from me
And no one knows how it's gonna be
Will you love me or leave me?
Will you keep on decieve me?
You're slowly slipping away from me

Are you really gonna leave me?
Don't you love me any more?
I wanna cry out in the darkness
Please don't go, please don't go

You're slowly slipping away from me
And no one knows how it's gonna be
You're slowly slipping away from me
You're slowly slipping away from me
You're slowly slipping away from me
You're slowly slipping away from me...
