It'd be a lie to say I'm not gonna miss you
So please don't say goodbye now
Til I've kissed you one more time
And held you as I did when you were mine

It'd be a lie to say I don't still love you
I won't be thinking of you, girl
I'll never try to call you one more time
Or try to find a way to change your mind

You don't love me any more
Oh baby, you don't love me any more
Baby, please forgive me
But the wine's gone to my head
And tomorrow I'll remember
How you turned to me and said

It'd be a lie to say that I still love you
That I'll be thinking of you, boy
I'll drive by to say hello sometime
Oh but not you're gone and all I have
Are five words on my mind

You don't love me any more
Oh baby, you don't love me anymore
Baby, please forgive me
But the wine's gone to my head
And tomorrow I'll remember
How you turned to me and said

You don't love me any more
Oh baby, you don't love me any more
I'll have to face it
You don't love me any more
Oh baby, you don't love me any more
Oh and it hurts so bad
Cos you don't love me any more
Oh baby, you don't love me any more
The tears are falling
Cos you don't love me any more
