Baby, baby here look at me
Yes I know, I know, I know
Maybe maybe it's not worth a damn
All the things we do to ourselves we don't understand
And who can say what tomorrow will be
We'll see

(Chorus:)

All our tomorrows find their own way
And hear the sound of distant thunder fading away
For every lonely night
We'll make our own brand of delight
And take all the comfort we may

Baby baby here look at me
Yes it shows, how it shows
Nothing worked out like I thought it would
Could have done worse you know
So I must have done good
And who can say what tomorrow will be
We'll see

(Chorus)

I found love in the strangest place
And refuge from the cold of night in a stranger's face
