Take Leave
the conscious mind Found myself
to be so inclined

Why sleep in discontent?
Oh the price of companionship

My shadow runs with me underneath the Big Wide Sun
My shadow comes with me
as we leave it all
we leave it all Far Behind

Empty pockets will Allow a greater Sense of wealth

Why contain yourself

Like any other Book on the shelf

My shadow lays with me
underneath the Big Wide Sun
My shadow stays with me
as we leave it all
we leave it all Far Behind

Subtle voices in the wind, Hear the truth they're telling A world begins where the road ends Watch me leave it all behind

Far Behind

Far Behind
