Its no shame that Love's a game that I can only play with you what I'm saying is I'm here waiting for you

I've seen the light I'm satisfied that the brightest star thats you Satelite I'm holding tight
Beaming back to you

Days turn into Night turns into Days turn into today

Don't think I'm out playin cause I'm inside wating for you

I've felt the light
I'm satisfied that
the highest high is you
Satelite I'm holding tight
Beaming back to you

Don't you worry
I beleive your story
You were put away
for something you didn't do
But I'm waiting
I've been saving my love...
