

Eddy Antonini

"Robe Of Calvary"

Visit "Robe Of Calvary" on MotoLyrics.com

(His robe his robe the robe of calvary Twas worn by my redeemer who lives eternaly)

Kings wear robes of gold and velvet soon their glory fades away

But the king of kings in heaven wore a homespun robe that day

Soldiers gambled for his garment while the sun turned dark above

But the men who crucified him were forgiven by his love

His robe his robe...

Those who saw his robe knew torment if they lived by sin and fault

But if they renounce the evil they were welcome by the Lord

Though it seems so plain and humble there was fate in every breath

He who wore that lives forever he has risen from the death

His robe his robe...

Visit Eddy Antonini page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.