Visit "After Losing You" on MotoLyrics.com

All the places we used to go all the things we used to do

All the things are in the past out after losing you Now my life's just one big heartache and my world is turning blue

I gotta hurt I can't get over after losing you

I go to the places we used to go
Just hoping to get a glimpse of you
And everytime I see you with your new love
It hurts me and breaks my heart in two

I thought no one could come between us
For you said you love me true
You've put me down I went to pieces after losing you
You've put me down I went to pieces after losing you
