"Baby I Will"

As I look across a meadow when I see our little girl chasing butterflies
I can feel you here standing next to me in the mist of mem'ries filled my eyes

All your strenght you gave to bring her to the world
You smiled and then I heard you softly speak
Give her all your love and kiss my baby girl
Then you closed your eyes and went to sleep

And baby I will I promise I will
Every day that I'll live all the love I can give baby I will

I can see your eyes and touch your golden hair
And kiss you when I hold her on my knees
And as the years go by I'll always see you there
For there's a part of you still here with me

And baby I will I promise I will
Every day that I'll live all the love I can give baby I will Baby I will I will
