Like the first apartment that we had
That bumpy little couch that made into a bed Shower down the hall and footsteps through the wood she said it's just fine Times were hard for us for quite a while But through those hungry days she faced it with a smile
Not wantin' me to know she's carrying my child she tried to ease my mind

And for my woman's love for my woman's love Each day I thank the Lord above for my sweet woman's love

Through the years of moving town to town Still searchin' for a dream somehow we never found And wondering if we would ever settle down her love never died
And if I have many things today I owe it to the love I had along the way
No matter what went wrong no matter come what may she stood by my side
