(Don Robertson - Howard Barnes)

How many arms have held you

And hated to let you go

How many, how many I wonder

But I really don't want to know.

How many lips have kissed you

And set your soul aglow

How many, how many I wonder

But I really don't want to know.

So always make me wonder

Always make me guess

And even if I ask you darling

Don't confess.

Just let it remain your secret

But darling I love you so

No wonder, no wonder I wonder

No, I really don't want to know...
