It's been so long darling since I gazed into your eyes
It's been so long darling do you really realize That just the thought of seeing you it scares me through and through
It's been so long darling since I had a kiss from you

It's been so long darling since I had to go away
It's been so long darling and I can't forget that day Although you never mentioned it you cried the whole day long
It's been so long darling but now I'm coming home [ strings ]
It's been so long darling since I gazed into your eyes...
