I want to have a long long friendship with you After years and years it's still growing strong friendsip with you I want have a long long walks and some real close heart to heart talks In the spring when stars are glowing by the fire when snow is snowing

I want to spend some long long hours with you Twenty four a day for all of my days and nights too
And knowing you're a friend who would never let my dreams fall through I'm gonna have a long long friendship uhm baby with you

I want to spend some long long hours with you Just enjoying all the joy in just being with you
And knowing you're a friend who would never let my
dreams fall through I'm gonna start that long long friendship uhm baby with you
