My dream is the dream of every man who's ever seen you It's to take you in my arms and hold you tight every night my dream

My dream is for you to love me like I love you And to know you'll somehow always be here with me my dream

My dream is the dream of love a lifetime through So come and share my dream and I'll share my life with you

My dream occupies my mind both day and night
And I hope someday my dreams will all come true girl with you my dream [strings]
And I'll share my life with you

My dream occupies my mind...
My dream
