Pretty words that you told me belong to yesterday
And the things you said to hold me have no power to make me stay Maybe somebody else will date you but only good thing my heart can say No I'll never put you down babe cause my heart's not made that way
(Cause my heart's not made that way)

Well love is like a whirl wind time goes by so fast Good times are not forever and we reached the end at last
I know you cried like a little child even that could make me stay
But I'll never put you down babe cause my heart's not
made that way
(Cause my heart's not made that way)

Mem'ries may be big as mountains but you'll make your way across
Once you shared so much always ever really lost No your hurt it won't be better for tomorrow's another day
And I'll never put you down babe cause my heart's not
made that way
(And I'll never never put you down babe cause my heart's not made that way
And I'll never never put you down babe cause my
