

Eddy Arnold

"Where Love Has Died"

Visit "Where Love Has Died" on MotoLyrics.com

If my years were less if my shoes were new I'd pack my things and I'd leave you Hitch myself to some westbound train you'd never see me again
If I could dream as I once could I'd be gone it'd good I don't want to live have never try in some old house
where love has died

We once had love but it's gone now don't know when don't know how We're two strangers under one roof no need to lie that's the truth Love has gone there's nothing left I wanna leave can't help myself
Don't want to live have never try in some old house
where love has died

Too many ghosts walk the floor ghosts of the love that ain't no more
I'd like to have what we once had ain't no way that's too bad
Cause you're too much a part of me for me to be ever free
So we'll keep living and neither tryin' in some old house
where love has died

Visit Eddy Arnold page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.