(Vaughn Horton)

You'd better stop tellin' lies about me
For I'm gonna tell the truth about you
Now you break in you're an angel but maybe if that's true
Someone must have clipped your wings before I met you.

Why don't you stop tellin' tales out of school
And twistin' them around the way you do
You'd better stop tellin' lies about me
For I'm gonna tell the truth about you.

Why don't you stop tellin' tales out of school
And twistin' them around the way you do
You'd better stop tellin' lies about me
For I'm gonna tell the truth about you.

You'd better stop tellin' lies about me
for I'm gonna tell the truth about you...
