Don't let it losing don't any worse
And all cruise up tha the punk is dead

Punk's not dead I know [x4]

We're all punks and we don't care
That was price to dye our hair
Blow the trapist in your face
With about tone of noise

It across to any law
Have no fear till the day I die
We all here use just to walk around
Don't like? I'll hitchu to the ground
