I can't see tomorrow, what the future holds But I believe my heart knows enough though sometimes I'm confused and I guess I stand to lose I don't wanna risk missing your sweet love

And ooh, if I knew, everything would end soon, I'd still choose to be with you

I can feel your body, promise me the pleasure
Move me even closer to you
I can read your mind and I believe its time to you don't have to ask just promise me this time won't be the last time

promise me forever don't just say whatever a broken vow is better than none don't dare leave me to feel as if you were not real We both know this memory will live on

And ooh, if I knew, everything would end soon, I'd still fall into your love

I can feel your body, promise me the pleasure
Move me even closer to you
I can read your mind and

promise me this night won't be the last promise me promise me
promise me this night won't be the last
that this won't be the alst night, baby
promise me this night won't be the last promise me this time

And ooh, if I knew, everything would end soon, I'd still choose to be with you

I can feel your body, promise me the pleasure
Move me even closer to you
I can read your mind and
last.....

I can feel your body, promise me the pleasure
Move me even closer to you
I can read your mind and
just promise me this time won't be promise me this night won't be,
last time

promise me this night won't be the last
promise me promise me
promise me this night won't be the last
that this won't be the alst night, baby
promise me this night won't be the last
promise me this time (repeat till fade)
