When I see you sad
With your head down low
Didn't know what she had
But she was a fool to let you go

I'm gonna take away your pain
I'm gonna make her loss my gain
I know you haven't seen me yet
Or thought of me that way

But I've been watching you, waiting for this day
I'll be all you need to forget her
You'll see through different eyes
I'm gonna make you realize

I'm not as naive as you think I am
Know what goes on between a woman and a man
Don't act so serious just take my hand
Do you wanna know? Can I do ya right?
Can I make you want me? You know I can

You know I can

You've got perfect lips
I always dream of kissin'
When I wake up boy
It's always you, I'm missin'

Now, I wanna be with the real you
Come and make my dreams come true
I gotta go easy, I gotta take my time
I got my arms here waiting to help you cross the line

I'm not as naive as you think I am
Know what goes on between a woman and a man
Don't act so serious just take my hand
Do you wanna know? Can I do ya right?
Can I make you want me? You know I can

You look at me and see innocence
Might seem like I don't have experience
Nothing you give to me is too intense

Do you wanna know? Can I do ya right?
Can I make you want me? You know I can

I'll be all you need to forget her
You'll see through different eyes
I'm gonna make you realize

I'm not as naive as you think I am
Know what goes on between a woman and a man
Don't act so serious just take my hand
If you wanna know? Can I do ya right?
Can I make you want me? You know I can

You look at me and see innocence
Might seem like I don't have experience
Nothing you give to me is too intense
Do you wanna know? Can I do ya right?
Can I make you want me? You know I can

I'm not as naive as you think I am
Know what goes on between a woman and a man
Don't act so serious just take my hand
If you wanna know? Can I do ya right?
Can I make you want me? You know I can

If you wanna know? Can I do ya right?
Can I make you want me? You know I can
If you wanna know? Can I do ya right?
Can I make you want me? You know I can

You know I can
You know I can
