in my darkest hour I pray for a life seemed gone astray see a flower grow

in a never ending night far away a colored light I can see a rainbow rise

(chorus)
I could believe in the love I found so long you're the air that I breathe let us dream a dream forever shine on in the haven of delight where love will shine a light let your beauty flow
forever shine on
in the distance I behold existing seems so cold I hear an angel sing in the evening glow I seek for a glimmering mountain's peak imagining I was free

(chorus)
like a candle in the wind we are fragile and we suffer from within our deepest hearts let the wind breeze through your hair and let your spirit fly forever shine on

(repeat twice)
