I can't believe you're just flesh and blood
You look too good, better knock on wood
I get flashes of E-lectricity
Every time you get next to me

My knees are shakin' and my head's in a spin
You knocked me out, a perfect 10
Like a contender in the main event
I took one look and honey down I went

The temperature is buildin'
Temperature is buildin'
Temperature is buildin'
Temperature is buildin'
To a fever pitch

Buildin' to a fever (PITCH)
The temperature is buildin'
Buildin' to a fever (PITCH)

Went to my doctor, he just shook his head
He said son you better get yourself to bed
I said doc that's just what I had in mind
Your diagnosis is the best I could find

He said boy you've really got it bad
Looks like the worst case I've ever had
You're sufferin' badly from romantic fever
Go out and find that girl and don't ever leave'er

The temperature is buildin'
The temperature is buildin'
Temperature is buildin'
Temperature is buildin'
To a fever pitch

Temperature is buildin' to a fever (PITCH)
Temperature is buildin'
Buildin' to a fever (PITCH)

(solo)

This pain is more than any man can endure
You are the cause girl and you got the cure
I'm at the crisis so I turn to you
I need a miracle to pull me through

The temperature is buildin'
My temperature is buildin'
Temperature is buildin'
Temperature is buildin'
To a fever pitch

Buildin' to a fever (PITCH)
The temperature is buildin' to a fever
Buildin' to a fever (PITCH)

Buildin' buildin' buildin' buildin'
Buildin' buildin' buildin' buildin'
Buildin' to a fever (PITCH) etc.
