(Blue Black) [Asheru]

A daily ritual, same time everyday

He walks through the marketplace but doesn't stay

A man that leans in a dress suit but doesn't pay

But he watches and rarely has something to say

[And like all men of knowledge living in the now

Do thing that have you shaking your head and asking how

But the rules don't apply when you know as well as I

That the only way live is not being afraid to die]

Just watching and being and seeing all

Like he knew what he was seeing and had seen it all

He walks around with a smooth gaze

Never on time, never late

Never on line, never waits

Always something on his mind but never debates

But the weight of his words will make you hesitate to say

What and unusual fellow, what and unusual fellow

[With the philosopher's stone and the elixer

Give it to you straight with no chase and no mixer

Picture perfect because I come as is

And just as sure as I got mine my man has his]

[Chorus: repeat 2X (Both)]

And so it goes our two favorite super heros

A brother named Don Juan another Don Ganero

Theme Music provided by Yo Dinero

So come catch the tale of the crow and the sparrow

Rumor has it he's a hitman

That ran his own plan from Mexico to Pakistan

See his father's a banker from Ecksland

While his mother's a jazz singer in a big band

Son, you couldn't count his siblings on two hands

But there's something in his manner that I didn't understand

[See my philosophy is simple

I take it to the temple

And speaking to you is like speaking on instrumentals

I don't ask why but why not?

How do you think I got here in the first place
To free time and space]
What an unusual fellow, what and unusual fellow
One day he greets a man I never saw him before
Standing in the doorway at the local record store
They embraced like many times before
But this time the meaning meant so much more
[Simply speaking with candor
And rocking bright mandarin
On Sunday as imination spray
North, east, west, and south
News spews from the mouth
Asheru and Blue's new who's who up in the house]

[Chorus]

[Days in the past when Asheru was last
But now I'm on the top, damn news travels fast]
It's Blue Black in the flesh
Of course I'm fresh
Oh you thought that I was rotten
Huh, I beg your pardon
[Let us begin
What, where, why, or when
Now let me explain like instructions to a game]
Let's do this not just say we did it
But I'm committed (Girl he's committed) to do ya
[I clock g's while some clock z's
And I don't smoke crack I smoke emcees]
The ripper, the master, the overlaudian
Playing emcees like an old accordian
I'm twisted and double fisted
Hanging out with the finest women that ever existed
Guest listed
So I enter with the confidence to dance
And end this composition with looks and glance
