I watch the streets glow before me and hear them promise a story
If only I'll listen

Oh, I
Watch the skyscrapers as they melt away
In the drops I can hear them say

This is the instant; let the gravity lose its grasp

[Chorus]
We are rising
Up from this underground
And we are blinding
with black electric as we
Set this night alight

I heard the say the boy's missing
Heard they say he's been kissing
The sparkles of the night
Oh, I
Heard they say the he turned the other way
Heard he's planning along with strays
Who in an instant; let this decadence take its grasp

[Chorus]
We are rising
Up from this underground
And we are blinding
with black electric as we
Set this night alight

I heard the streetlights sigh
I set them all to sleep again
I deny that it's goodbye
We'll dance another night

I heard the streetlights sigh
I set them all to sleep again
I deny that it's goodbye
We'll dance another night

Who in an instant;let this decadence take its grasp

[Chorus]

We are rising

Up from thjis underground

And we are blinding

with blaqck electric as we

Set this night alight
