Turn away, don't look me in the eyes
I can't fake this, it's been too many times now
Hide your face, let's impersonalize this
This end game means nothing
It's nothing to me

The love had a chance, but it escaped to become a star
And if ether was consumed, you'd see...

Love isn't possible, so face down
All of the finer things were made now
(Alone)

Turn away, please, please avert these eyes
I cannot take this, it's far too truth to lie
I can't, can't remain, but insincerity binds me
Close your eyes, we're going, we're going under

The love that the child had seen
Ran away to become a star
Your white lie, it was consumed with me

Love isn't possible, so face down
All of the finer things were made now
Love isn't possible, so head down
I'll show you the faster fix, then break down
(Alone)

Oh lover, don't look at me,
Lover, don't look at me
I'm too afraid you'll see there's nothing
Oh lover, don't look at me,
Lover, don't look at me
I'm too afraid you'll see there's nothing,
There's nothing

Love isn't possible, so face down
All of the finer things were made now
Love isn't possible, so head down now
I'll show you the faster fix, then break down
(Alone)
