Cutting through just like champagne petals
Sprinkled over the blackest sea
Urban stars will shine, electric
They keep on calling as they beckon

I'm enamored of the sight
No, everything won't be alright
For me tomorrow, tomorrow
Tomorrow may not come

Ascending slowly with hopes of finding
One small moment of clarity
Escape the blackness cast upon me
I still can't see as you bind me

Murder me from miles away
I will finish this today for you
Tomorrow, tomorrow
Tomorrow means nothing

Immobile lights will fly tonight
We'll watch them pass together
As we part the rising sky
I won't die without you

These breathtaking heights lend sparkling sights
But we won't fall forever
We're tightly bound, we'll chase the ground
I won't die without you

Descending quickly with hopes of sharing
All the things you've shared with me
I'll chase the digital eye's below me
Through them you'll see as I fall with

Digital omniscient eyes
Capturing me one last time for you
Tomorrow, tomorrow
Tomorrow you will see

Immobile lights will fly tonight
We'll watch them pass together

As we part the rising sky
I won't die without you

These breathtaking heights lend sparkling sights
But we won't fall forever
We're tightly bound, we'll chase the ground
I won't die without you

This is a breakthrough
Oh, forget me not
This is my breakthrough
Oh, forget me not

When you see me soaring
And the lights are screaming
You'll forget me not

We'll fly tonight

Immobile lights will fly tonight
As we part the rising sky

These breathtaking heights lend sparkling sights
Tightly bound, we'll chase the ground
I won't die, I won't die, I won't die, I won't die without you
