The ghoul has reached my coffin now he Smash the lid. All I see is darkness and
Two shining eyes. Crawling to the church
And in a stream of light I see my mutila-
Ted remains gore instead of flesh. Rotten
And filled with maggots I search for Modern life I would die to see, my kids
And wife. A scream break the silence (*) a
Human being died. Shocked of this morbid
Sight. Crawling in the night. I'm so near My dying place, I can see my loved. I open
The door and there she stands, I hear the Children scream.

I saw people die, as dead as I was. The Children puked then died, love has tur-
Ned to carrion.
