It's time to take our river back they're had their way for far too long no opposition part of this gone wrong yeah you're not alone where you go now watch it all there's acid rain in skies I can see I can feel that I'm not alone

When the world is bathed in fire all I gotta say
we'll start a revolution
it's what we need

ohhhh I can now see the end of this it's all simple come with me we'll burn their greed down

They drug our minds they sell us dreams we're all free to be the same for one to win ten have to lose in life yeah it's all for sale Across the world it's there for all there's a silent rage inside We all give you just take well we're not alonge

If there's going to be tomorrow
all i gotta say
it's what we need

ohhh I can now see the end
come with me we'll burn their greed down

Start the revolution
I want you to know life is just an illusion we seek more

watch as we burn your greed down
