When all is said and all is done. Beneath the ground, and man lies dead. When all the earth is a cold grave and no more brave. Bright things have birth when cooling sun and stone-cold world together hurled. Flame up as one o sons of men.
When all is flame what of your fame and splendour then? When all is fire and flaming air what of your rare and high desire to turn the clod to a thing divine the earth a shrine and man the God??

[Riffs: Swan"]

[Piano: Swan"]

[This song is dedicated to all those forgotten years.]
