"The Unbeliever"

I am the madness carrying the torch,
Lighting the wheat in your fields.
I am the eyes staring out of the dark,
I am the wear of your yields.

When you give response away I grow,
I am more of you then you might know.

Burning down... burning down...
It's a story of deceivers.
Burning down... burning down...
Put the blame on the unbeliever!

I am the vision that comes to your mind
When you denounce without regret.
"God" is the word in the bible you say,
I am the word that you spread!

I'm born and I lead the weak into the fire,
"no more pain" is what you claim
While you have found your wicked desire...
...hahaha...
