[music & lyrics: Tobias Sammet]

Seasons's gone and seasons go
Here I wait for something to be
Try to get as much as I can see
Hungry for life
But Have you see the sands of time
Every day is a moment in past
Every heartbeat a step to my last
I won't survive

I don't know what time is ment to be
If it's my friend or enemy
Or does it only run - Run to set and end
Secrets are the crazy dream
Or just a bad Reality
I don't know

Do you feel the sands of time
Running low to break the line
First we learn to fly
Then we learn to cry
Later in the evening we may die

Questions roaming through my brain
I'll be leavin' into my grave
I'll be dead - hope my soul will be save
For a time - hope forever

All the seasons will have been gone
Time will come that you will forget
My name and the words that I said
My time will be over
