The moment when you held me tight
Won't come back anymore
And at the end of that night
You slammed the door

My dream it died away
Just when I saw red
And nothing but a memory
Is left inside my head

Nothing is forever in life
But a memory - believe it's true
And when I gaze in the rain
I'm crying just for you

The scarlet rose has died
Lost inside the night
Left in my mind like a dream and full of pride
The scarlet rose has died

The one and only way to catch the Beauty of dawn
Is to take a picture
Of the growing sun

I got the experience
No one could steal away
One moment of your life is mine
I remember day by day

Nothing is forever in life
But a memory - believe it's true
And when I gaze in the rain
I'm crying just for you

...and full of pride...
