[Madrox]

Off the windows in my mind at night
There somethings going on, some of them are not right
I've been locked in this house, and it's confused and cold
No one is there on the couch, and I'm alone
Inside of my head, things are unclear
I don't rely on the person I see in the mirror
And I don't die for the chance to be standing right here
Sometimes I'm a smart ass when being sincere

[Monoxide]

I see everything flashing, I wish it would stop
There is something that makes me so nervous 'bout cops
All their pushing and shoving and mace in my eyes
It will only keep burning this hate that's inside of me
Hitting and kicking me just for the fun
And though all I keep thinking is "Go For his gun!"
To protect and to serve are the words you should heed
And if you don't we're going to watch you bleed

[Chorus]

Wondering Why (Why?)
Not giving up (No!)
Nothing can break me
Wondering Why (Why?)
Not giving up (No!)
Nothing can phase me
Wondering Why (Why?)
Not giving up (No!)
Nothing can save me
Wondering Why (Why?)
Not giving up (No!)
Nothing can change me

[Monoxide]

She loves me and hates me, It's all just the same
But I can't hear her screaming and yelling my name
Now her face is all blue, and her eyes are all red

From the bloodcells that just keep on popping inside of me
(Help me, I'm burning and pushing away)
Her pictures and memories and things she would say
They keep coming and flashing
So I keep laughing, Bitch
You never should of fucked my boy

[Madrox]

I'm in touch with my fear that's why I stay afraid
And I'll stay that way til night turns to day
And them nice words you say, will slowly mutate
And become the better part of you that we all love to hate
And while speaking on fate, I'm trying to relate To the ever growing destiny, and it's amazing shape
They tell me I'm straight then they diss me on tape
There's a website debate, was it all a mistake?

[Chorus]

[Monoxide]

It just keeps calling me, and wishes my name
Only moonlight was hitting the darkness again
All my friends they are dead, but remain in my ears
So I choose to believe that they are all my enemies
Telling me (DIE!)
And alter the sky, that hell is a ruin and heaven's a fantasy
Capture me mentally, nothing substantially evident
Except that my head's a little fucked up

[Chorus]
