I notice me-I notice you
I see alot of things that neither of us do I notice me-I notice you too
And there are simple things that we don't even try anymore

Theres a way out of this Beat the time and everytime/ I turn around We got some clever way to put each other down and everytime I turn away I can't decide if I should go or should I stay with you

Theres a way outa this Beat the time
We can't leave these problems behind
So close the door and open your mind
