Sank like a stone into rainwater.
That broken home broke my heart.
We must be strong when we don't wanna.
When darkness falls into your arms.
And I remember melodies
Of songs we used to sing.
Doot Doot n Doo Doo
The rain falls.
Doot Doot n Doo Doo
And everyone rushes in.
Doot Doot n Doo Doo
The rain falls on.
Out in the yard, playin cards in the summer.
Cicadas calling through the trees.
It wasn't hard for us all to come together.
It wasn't hard for us all to leave.
And I remember melodies. Of songs we used to sing.
Doot Doot n Doo Doo
The rain falls.
Doot Doot n Doo Doo
And everyone rushes in.
Doot Doot n Doo Doo
The rain falls on.
I remember melodies of songs we used to sing.
Long forgotten melodies of songs we used to sing.
