I ain't gonna kill myself loving you
I ain't gonna kill myself loving you
I ain't gonna break my own heart
I ain't gonna break my own heart
I ain't gonna kill myself wanting you
I ain't gonna kill myself wanting you
When you don't seem to want any part of my love
When you don't seem to want any part of my love
And I know I'll be fine just as soon as I let go
And I know I'll be fine just as soon as I let go
Yes I know I'll be alright as soon as I let go
Yes I know I'll be alright as soon as I let go
Get a strong case of weakness -- a rich worthless love
Get a strong case of weakness -- a rich worthless love
Tell you straight out that it's twisted
Tell you straight out that it's twisted
Crack flash of lightning struck from above
Crack flash of lightning struck from above
Knocked down a cow and I kissed ya
Knocked down a cow and I kissed ya
Oh, now, now I know I'll be fine just as soon as I let go
Oh, now, now I know I'll be fine just as soon as I let go
Yes I know I'll be alright as soon as I let go
Yes I know I'll be alright as soon as I let go
But I keep holding on for a future
But I keep holding on for a future
I keep waiting for something to change
I keep waiting for something to change
I keep holding on for a future
I keep holding on for a future
I keep looking for something that I never see
I keep looking for something that I never see
I ain't gonna kill myself loving you
I ain't gonna kill myself loving you
I ain't gonna die for a life together
I ain't gonna die for a life together
I ain't gonna kill myself wanting you
I ain't gonna kill myself wanting you
When you don't seem to want me oh my days go by
When you don't seem to want me oh my days go by
