I'm waiting on a call, to tell you how I feel about this,
next time through it all, don't take away the life we changed, it's never over, it's never over, until the day has turned too dark, and the stars hang deeply in the sky.

I... I will not give up, all the life we gave into this love,
it's never ever gonna be enough,
through it all we fought,
in and out, and never learned,
the meaning of the story, it's been said, but never again you'll hear it, we'll be dead...

Fighting fighting fighting for, lighting lighting lighting your,
path along the way to yesterday, living in the past,
here we go again, here we go again.
I will not give up,
I will not give up,
all the life we gave into this love,
it's never ever gonna be enough,
through it all we fought,
in and out, and never learned,
the meaning of the story, it's been said, but never again you'll-

I will not give up,
all the life we gave into this love,
it's never ever gonna be enough,
through it all we fought,
in and out, and never learned,
the meaning of the story, it's been said,
but never again you'll hear it,
we'll be dead...
