There's plastic on your living room furniture Then there's that brand new black sports car you never drive
You say I make love look easy and that's cause it is When you get down to it there's really nothing else

You got that shiny red heart in your chest Your little boy intentions are laced with gold
But what's the use of that big heart if you can't make it go?
It may look so pretty but there's really nothing else

Make it go
Make it go
Make it go

I don't know where to put you
So I think I'll
