I'd like to keep the way you look at me
Right there on your face
I'd like to keep it making me crazy
I'd like to move into you
Without taking up your place
Can I anticipate?
Saying yes, yes
Anything you want
I say yes
I say yes, I'm up to the task
Anything you ask

I'd like to stop running like I was a stupid man on fire
I'm smart enough to lay down take off my clothes
I'd like to pass this test without walking on a wire
Keep you awake when you're tired
Saying yes, yes
Anything you want
I say yes
I say yes, I'm up to the task
Anything you ask

I'd like to end this race of resistance
Walk a miracle mile
I'd like to get us both over the line
I'd like to tattoo my mouth on your shameless smile
I'd testify at your trial

A better man I never have seen
As good as one of my father's sons
And I never thought I could be
A good enough woman
A strong enough woman
Saying yes, yes
Anything you want
I say yes
I say yes, I'm up to the task
Anything you ask
