As the last boy I loved
Told me the day we said goodbye
My heart is too sentimental
And his love he could only deny
As the last boy I loved
Kissed me and left me behind
He said our love was just an illusion
Just a temporary figment of my mind

A mirage
That disappeared the moment I arrived
It was just an illusion in my mind
A mirage
That went away like a rainbow in the light
'Cause it only existed in my mind
Yes, it only existed in my mind

A mirage
That disappeared the moment I arrived
It was just an illusion in my mind
A mirage
That went away like a rainbow in the light
'Cause it only existed in my mind

When the last boy I kissed
Told me he couldn't be true
He swore my heart it was lyin'
That I'd fall in love with somebody new
When the last boy I kissed
Left me alone and free
Oh, if only I could have predicted
What a lonely old world it would be

A mirage
That disappeared the moment I arrived
It was just an illusion in my mind
A mirage
That went away like a rainbow in the light
'Cause it only existed in my mind
Yes, it only existed in my mind
