I've got a bad feeling something's going down soon
Invisible to everyone and locked up in my room
I want us to be happy, together or apart
I wanna be satisfied with the way things are

Come on if you need me, I ain't gonna push you away
Come on and get closer, please tell me what to say
Come on and believe me, I ain't gonna push you away
Won't you let me get closer, just tell me what I should say

I don't it to be over
I don't want this thing to end
He says he knows he loves me
So why's he wanna treat me
Like I'm just a friend

You gotta forgive me
Or is that too much to ask
I just wanna love you
So tell me what's wrong with that
If you don't want me, baby
Well, I don't know what I'll do
You've gotta forgive me
The way I'm forgiving you

I don't it to be over
I don't want this thing to end
He says he knows he loves me
So why's he wanna treat me
Like I'm just a friend, oh no no

I've got a bad feeling something's going down soon
Invisible to everyone and locked up in my room
I want us to be happy, together or apart
I wanna be satisfied with the way things are

Come on let me hold you, oh baby, please don't cry
Come on and get closer, it's gonna be alright
I want you to be happy, we'll find a compromise
Your happiness, baby, is just as important as mine

I don't it to be over
I don't want this thing to end
He says he knows he loves me
So why's he wanna treat me
Like I'm just a friend

I don't it to be over
I don't want this thing to end
He says he knows he loves me
And I know he does
So why's he wanna treat me
Like I'm just a friend

Oh no...
