"Lovin' You Goodbye"

I'm glad I had you
For what little time you could give
I couldn't leave without knowing you that much better
I couldn't leave without loving you goodbye
I couldn't leave without loving you goodbye

And yes, I miss you now that I'm gone
Yes I guess you'd rather go on
Without me, without me

I'd like to stay with you
To hang by the edge of your fire
I'd like to soak up your hunger and lay down in your lap
I couldn't leave without loving you goodbye
I couldn't leave without loving you goodbye

And yes, I miss you now that I'm gone
Yes I guess you have to go on Why's it only obvious to me
Love is love and love is free
And yes I guess you're living alone
So tell me how you're getting along
Without me, without me, without me
