You would want my body
You'd want my sex
You'd want my thought
That's what you said
I gave you the benefit of the doubt
Now you're lookin' to cross me out

I gotta be a man
I gotta be a man
I gotta be a man about it
I gotta be a man
I gotta be a man
I gotta be a man about it

So I wanna know
Where did I go wrong in my thinking
You'd be the one for a girl like me
What's the use of trying
When you're only gonna break my heart

I went all the way to the western shore
Crossed the distance to your door
And now you say my word ain't true
To do what I say I'm gonna do

I was there for you
I was there for you
I was there for you throughout it
I was there for you, hot damn!
I was there for you
I was there for you throughout it

So I wanna know
Where did I go wrong in my thinking
You'd give your trust to a girl like me
What's the use of trying again
When you're only gonna break my heart

Where did I go wrong in my thinking
You'd fall in love with a girl like me
What's the use of trying
When I know you're gonna break my heart

I fall in love and I end up blue
That's just the story of what I do
I fall in love and I end up blue
That's just the story of what I do
