Whisper, danger
Warning lights begin to shine
Over this cloud
Shedding truth convincing you that

It's just a mood
It's just a mood
It's just a mood
Another side of you

It's just a mood
It's just a mood
It's just another side of this truth

What if I were you
What if I were made from
All of your mistakes
Could I fill your shoes
And feel like you
Fill your shoes
And feel like you
Just like you

Echo every word that strikes a nerve
Surrender your choice
Resistance or remembering that

It's just a mood
It's just a mood
It's just a mood
Another side of you

It's just a mood
It's just a mood
It's just another side of this truth

What if I were you
What if I were made from
All of your mistakes
Could I fill your shoes
And feel like you

Fill your shoes
And feel like you
Just like you

I said sorry, I never promised you
Roses or any happiness forever after
I said sorry, I never promised you
Roses or any happiness forever after

What if I were you
What if I were made from
All of your mistakes
Could I fill your shoes
And feel like you
Fill your shoes
And feel like you

What if I were you
What if I were made from
All of your mistakes
Could I fill your shoes
Just like you
