Chi Coltrane
Well I think that I've cried long enough
And I guess I've tried too hard
And I've had my share of worry
That's for sure
A man can really bring you down
If you let him get at your heart
I've got to get myself together
For the cure--
It's time to come in out of the rain
Ain't gonna let it pour
On my life anymore
I'm looking for a better way
To live the only life I have
And now I know I'll find it
You just see
I've gone through all those changes
That only bring you down
And nothing's gonna put a weight on me
It's time to come in out of the rain
Ain't gonna let it pour
On my life anymore.
