What to say
There is nothing I can do I cannot manipulate the way I used to see them everywhere the decoys they sent up now they're all shot down as if it wasn't bad enough I put it down 'cause it makes no sense
I put it down to experience
I'd leave it all but no matter where I wake up hard I wake pale for an hour I'll be anyone for a week I swear I can be no one the fact is lying still and the favors are all spent
what to say
there is nothing I can do
I cannot communicate so I'll try harder not to
