try to find a way to love me deep inside, im just a girl who lives next door you are the light inside my heart deep inside, and you are the boy who lives next door dont you wanna feel my touch dont you wanna be my light next door
come inside my heart
you paint my heart
you take my soul
you fit my heart
you are my light next door
come inside my heart
come inside my heart
deep inside, im just a boy who lives next door
you are the light inside my heart deep inside, and you are the girl who lives next door dont you wanna feel my touch
come inside my heart
you paint my heart
you take my soul

cause I love you...

cause I love you...

and I need you...

...I love you...

...I love you...
