[Hook:]

In the dead of winter my bones are cold
My heart is froze and I'm alone
Won't you save me and make me believe
That there's more to life than I can see
I like to believe that there's a right way out, a long way down
To the bottom of a bottle is where I'll be found alone

[Bridge:]

Alone, alone, on my own
But I know, I know
That you won't let me down

[Verse:]

Cold feelings in my heart in the dead of winter
Empty thoughts fill me up but they ain't my dinner
Long lost nights looking for a shooting star Closing my eyes to go to sleep has never been this hard
I guess it comes down to what I expected in the end
And I know that hearts are given, they're not up for lend
All I need is for you to save me from me
Pick me up, fix me up, set me back on my feet Let me know when you go, you'll come back and never leave
I need you to see through and look past all my grief
And if you're looking for me? well I'll be drinking away the pain
In the cold and as I'm told it will leave just as it came

[Hook:]

In the dead of winter my bones are cold
My heart is froze and I'm alone
Won't you save me and make me believe
That there's more to life than I can see
I like to believe that there's a right way out, a long way
down
To the bottom of a bottle is where I'll be found alone
