Do you, do you remember those days of slavery ?

It wasn't black man alone, who died thru bravery

'though some a dem threw dem self over board

because dis ya slaveship overload

(scatting)

It wasn't black man alone, that really really suffer as slaves

But we suffer the hardest way until today

(scatting)

Some a dem commit suicide

And thru disease we caught some a dem died

De whole world a cry, dem a cry, dem a cry, dem a cry

(scatting)

Do you, do you remember those days of slavery ?

Thru crooked rocks, dangerous ocean

In ya dis ya civilisation

(scatting)

Me said-a do you, do you really remember

When it was the day of slavery ?

Chiney man, Indian, white man died thru bravery

But as black man we suffer as slave

The hardest way until today

But a-so dey say, but a-so, but a-so dey say

(scatting)
