yeah man
she really struggle brother, she really struggle
yeah man
she really struggle hard brother really hard

her man a die
leaving her with a child yeah brother she really struggle brother she really struggle yeah

under the golden moonlight she just sits there and cries her only love had died

her times seems to be so hard her wages seem to be small she lingers alone with no man with no strong

sometimes she just a holla sometimes she just a bawl she complaining bout the budget is small, is small, is small,

yeah
she really cried she really, really, really, really, really cried brother
yeah man

now the child has grown and how often imagine how his mother really survive alone

instrumental illegally he tried to make it but he didn't reach a dime oh sorrow

his mother committed suicide a-yai, a-yai, a-yai, a-yai,

be de bong, be de bong

sometimes jut a bawl her budget is small its really small

she really feels it brother god knows
man
she feels it now

be de de gong den
